Rochester vs. Tampa Bay Friday, July 18, 1997

TONIGHT'S GAME: If 'The Rematch' is half as exciting as the first battle, soccer fans are in for a real treat as the Tampa Bay Mutiny invade Frontier Field to avenge last season's 4-3 double overtime loss to the Rhinos in the U.S. Open Cup tournament ... Last season, Rhinos D Chris Kennel scored in the 112th minute, sending 12,428 fans into a frenzy and Rochester into the Open Cup Semis ... Tampa Bay comes in this evening with a 12-10 record, good for second place in the Eastern Conference; the Mutiny has won their last two contests ... Rochester returns home having lost six consecutive games, dropping them to third in the Northeast Division ...

THE U.S. OPEN CUP: A-League teams have played ten games in the U.S. Open Cup thus far and have a 5-5 record to show for it ... Three A-League teams are still alive, including Rochester and Long Island, who face MLS opponents this evening; Hershey competes in their third round match next Wednesday ... No A-League team has advanced to the quarterfinals of the tournament, while two D3 pro league teams have pulled off upsets over MLS squads, earning a spot in the next round ... Home teams have won only two of the five third round games played ...

RHINOS CHARGE SLOWED: After a hot streak that saw them win six of seven contests, the Rhinos have lost six straight games and are in jeopardy of falling below .500 for the first time all season ... The good news for Rochester is that they finish the season at home for six of their last eight contests, a place where they are 5-3 this season ...

THE ALL-STAR OF ALL-STARS: For two consecutive seasons, Tampa Bay Mutiny M Carlos Valderrama has been named the MLS All-Star Game MVP for his brilliant play; he capped the inaugural MLS season off by being named the league's MVP and a member of the post-season 'Best 11' ... In 1997, Valderrama leads MLS with 13 assists in just 13 games played and is tied with Preki (Kansas City) for the league lead in game-winning assists with four each ...

NEWS & NOTES: The Rhinos are 4-1 in U.S. Open Cup play, while Tampa Bay is 0-1, their only game being against Rochester last season ... Rhinos F Jimmy Glenn has a goal in his last two matches and three in his last four ... The Mutiny are 10-3 when scoring first, the Rhinos 9-5 ... Rochester is 10-5 in one goal games, Tampa Bay 8-4 ... The A-League and MLS are 4-4-2 in exhibition games against one another this season.
