Rochester vs. Raleigh Saturday, August 2, 1997

TONIGHT'S GAME: The Rhinos are back to A-League action tonight as they take on the Raleigh Flyers; both teams are battling for playoff position as the season winds down ... Rochester is winless in their last six contests and dropped a 1-0 match to Tampa Bay (MLS) last night in U.S. Open Cup action ... The Flyers come in having won their last game, but are only 4-6 over their last ten ... The Rhinos are three points ahead of fourth place Long Island, who pulled off a come-from-behind U.S. Open Cup upset win against the New England Revolution last evening, and only two behind second place Toronto in the Northeast Division ... Raleigh trails Charleston by two points for the fourth and final playoff spot in the A-League's Atlantic Division ...

THE U.S. OPEN CUP: Rochester's bid for a second straight U.S. Open Cup Final appearance was derailed last night as the Tampa Bay Mutiny defeated the Rhinos 1-0 in a third round game ... Rochester controlled most of the first half, out-shooting the Mutiny 8-4, but could not score ... Tampa Bay's Gilmar broke the scoreless tie in the 79th minute and the Mutiny went onto a 1-0 victory ... Tampa Bay featured four U.S. National players in Roy Lassiter, Martin Vasquez, Frankie Hejduk and Steve Ralston ...

RHINOS CHARGE SLOWED: After a mid-season hot streak that saw them win six of seven matches, the Rhinos have lost six straight and are in jeopardy of falling below .500 for the first time this season ... The bright side for Rochester is that they finish the season at home for six of their last eight contests, a place where they are 5-3 this season ... Through the first 13 games of the season, the Rhinos had scored two or more goals in nine of those games, posting a 9-4 record in the process; in their last seven contests, Rochester has managed two plus goals just once and have gone 1-6 in those matches ...

GLENN STEPPING UP: F Jimmy Glenn has picked up the scoring slack since F Doug Miller has been sidelined with a knee injury, netting three goals in his last four games ... Through 20 games this season, Glenn has scored 10 goals, good for second on the Rhinos and ninth in the league ... The Rhinos are 5-5 when Glenn scores, 7-2 when Miller scores and 3-0 when they both score ... Glenn has scored the Rhinos only goal of the game on five different occasions ...

AUGUST LOOKS PROMISING: In addition to having six of their last eight games at Frontier Field, history says the Rhinos are a good late season team (6-3 in nine August games last season) ... At this point, home field for the first round of the playoffs is only a victory away.

It's awfully hard to win a game with just one player. And, in today's complex environment, it could be just as difficult reaching your investment goals on your own. Our professional Investment Executives offer creative solutions to your investment needs.
